WHO WAS FULTON SHEEN?

Venerable Fulton John Sheen was an American bishop (later an archbishop), a prolific author, and popular radio and television personality. He hosted “Life is Worth Living” on the Dumont and ABC television networks from 1952- 1957, and “The Fulton Sheen Program,” a revival of his earlier program, which ran in syndication from 1961-1968. He is held today as one of Catholicism’s most widely recognized figures of the twentieth century and his cause is underway for canonization.
